EXECUTIVE PROFILE

I am Jamal Uddin, Director of Star Line Group, with professional involvement across a diversified portfolio of businesses and organizations in Bangladesh. My experience spans food and beverage, healthcare, manufacturing, energy and fuel, transportation, travel, agriculture, media and trading.

Through my leadership responsibilities, I work across multiple business concerns, supporting organizational development, business operations, commercial activities and institutional relationships. My professional portfolio reflects experience across different industries and business environments.

Beyond my business responsibilities, I have also been involved in professional, community, civic and institutional activities. My involvement includes business chambers, professional associations, social organizations and community initiatives.

My professional journey combines business leadership, organizational involvement, institutional engagement and community participation, with a continued focus on contributing to the development of businesses and institutions in Bangladesh.
